2 About the Host

2.1 Sichuan Province

Situated in southwest China and on the upper reaches of the Yangtze River, Sichuan is renowned as the “Land of Abundance”. It covers an area of 486,000 square kilometres and borders with seven provinces (including autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the central government), namely, Chongqing, Guizhou, Yunnan, Xizang, Qinghai, Gansu, and Shaanxi. The province has a permanent resident population of over 83 million.

Boasting a long history, Sichuan is the cradle of ancient Shu civilisation, and the place where “Jiaozi”, the earliest banknote in the world, was born. Shu Brocade and Sichuan Shadow Play have been included in UNESCO’s list of intangible cultural heritage. In particular, Sanxingdui Site and Jinsha Site epitomise the resplendent and mysterious civilisation of ancient Sichuan.

The province also abounds in tourism resources. Among the 26 global tourism resources and brands, there are 3 World Natural Heritage Sites including Jiuzhaigou Valley, Huanglong Scenic and Historic Interest Area and Sichuan Giant Panda Sanctuaries, 1 World Cultural Heritage Site (Mount Qingcheng and the Dujiangyan Irrigation System), and 1 World Cultural and Natural Heritage Site (Mount Emei and Leshan Giant Buddha Scenic Area).

Sichuan is active in external exchanges. As of December 2024, it has established friendly relations with 500 provinces/states in 87 countries/regions, and economic and trade relations with over 200 countries/regions. A total of 381 Fortune Global 500 Enterprises have operated in Sichuan. Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan Province, is among the Chinese cities offering a 240-hour visa-free transit policy for travellers from 54 countries.

2.2 Chengdu

Chengdu is the hometown of the Giant Pandas and enjoys over 4,500 years of civilisation history and more than 2,300 years of history as a city, manifesting a perfect mixture of history, culture and modernity. Being the capital of Sichuan Province and a central city in southwest China, Chengdu covers an area of 14,300 square kilometres and has a permanent population of 21.4 million, which has turned it into a megacity known to the world. It is also an important centre of economy, science and technology, finance, cultural creativity, and international exchanges in China, and an international hub for comprehensive transportation and communications.

Today’s Chengdu values opening up with global vision. In total, 23 countries have been approved to establish consulates in Chengdu. And the city has established sister-city and friendship city relations with 113 cities around the world, and trade relations with 235 countries/regions worldwide. Chengdu is the third city having two international airports on the Chinese mainland, following Shanghai and Beijing, and the 19th city with two 4F airports in the world. In 2024, the passenger throughput exceeded 87 million. As of December 2024, it has opened 73 regular international and regional flight routes, covering both passenger and freight services. In addition, it is linked to 118 overseas cities through its international freight train services.

Chengdu has been awarded as the City of Gastronomy by UNESCO for its world-renowned Sichuan cuisine, great variety of delicious street food, and tasty spicy hot pot. It is also selected by UNWTO as China’s Best Tourist City. Tianfu culture, the bedrock of Chengdu’s city culture, has been nourishing the people and the city with the spirits of valuing innovation, creativity, elegance, fashion, optimism, inclusiveness, friendship, and public welfare. Chengdu has successfully held the Chengdu FISU World University Games, the Thomas & Uber Cup Finals 2024, among other major international events. Culture and sports have become the two focal points as Chengdu is going global in a more open and confident manner.

3 About TWG 2025 Chengdu

3.1 Overview

On 9 May 2019, at the Annual General Meeting of the International World Games Association held in Gold Coast, Australia, Chengdu successfully won the bid to host The World Games 2025. TWG 2025 Chengdu will be held from 7 to 17 August 2025, with a total of 60 disciplines under 34 sports competed in 27 venues in 8 venue clusters.

3.2 Slogan, Logo and Mascots

3.2.1 Slogan

“Boundless Sports, Countless Wonders”, the slogan implies that Chengdu is a land of promise where tradition and modernity coexist harmoniously. The city presents a delightful contrast between the fast pace of a metropolis and the residents’ slow lifestyle. Moreover, the leisurely atmosphere in its streets and lanes complements the competitive spirit of sportsmanship. Sports, like a dazzling spark, ignite the infinite potential and possibilities of this city, making happiness prevail in this land of countless wonders.
